My dear friend,

thanks for your letters. I am glad you are a little better and the Swiss are so kind to you. Are you quite sure to see the lady this week? It would be the biggest step forward we ever can do. If she only writes a letter it's just a very good thing. And that can't be too difficult to her I suppose. All the night I was thinking about my own possibilities . Of course I could go to the place you know but we know pretty well that the police would'nt let me have a chance. It is awful having to wait without doing anything but I think it's better than doing things badly.

I hope you are going to have a nice time. It is quite impossible to believe we are in january. there is spring-time since we are staying here.

Good luck for all things

yours

Hille.
